

Air 1 is an excellent radio station in every community. The music is positive and uplifting and the news information is informative and different from the primary media outlets. It would be a shame for us to lose this station because of the positive influence it serves. No advertising makes it that much more enjoyable. To lose it, I would probably not listen to the radio much at all anymore and the community would lose one of the few decent radio stations we have left.